CHINESE DATABASE

Off-Highway Research's Chinese Database Service is available as a 12-month subscription and provides detailed insights into the equipment market. Data comprises annual sales and production in unit terms for 15 products, with coverage of more than 130 OEMs. Data is updated and forecasts refined at least twice per year, giving subscribers access to the latest market intelligence and outlook.

Data is collected and compiled by our team of industry specialists in Beijing. Recognised as leading experts on the Chinese industry, their knowledge, diligence and relationships with OEMs and dealers help ensure the accuracy of our information, which we believe is second to none in the market.

Included in the Chinese Database Service is our Chinese annual review, which is published every April. This report, which sells to non-subscribers for more than US$1,000, provides context and analysis to the wealth of information in the database. It is available in English or Chinese.

ACCESSING THE SERVICE

Data is accessed via our online database, downloadable PC application for offline working or as a .CSV file. Our intuitive database package allows clients to quickly and easily build searches, making market analysis a fast and efficient task. Both the online and offline databases allow clients to manipulate data and export it directly as an Excel worksheet for easy integration with other analytical tools.

Our standard single-site licence allows for up to five individual users based in one location. If you require further access rights, please enquire about our multi- and global-site licence packages.
